To all Journeymen of Plumbers Local 55,

This letter is to remind you that you are required this year (May 2013-April 2014) to attend, complete and show proof of having OSHA 30 to the JATC according to the CBA for 2013-2014. The OSHA 30 must be completed by April 30th 2013. Once completed there will be no Continuing Education Requirement for 2014-2015.

What you need to do:

1. If you currently hold an OSHA 30 card:
 - A. Bring your "gold" OSHA 30 card to the JATC. We will make a copy and you will be completed. We will only accept the "gold" card issued from OSHA.
 - B. If you misplaced your "gold" card and wish a replacement:
 1. Contact the training provider (CPI 216-459-0770). By OSHA Standards if it is past 3 years since completion than you must retake the OSHA 30. A new card cannot be reissued.
 2. Once you have the card refer to 1. A.
2. If you never have had an OSHA 30 card:
 - A. Sign up for one of the 12 scheduled OSHA 30 courses listed on the next page. Complete all 8 sessions and you will be completed. Your "gold" card will be mailed to you.
 - B. Online training is your other option. Review the attachment to this letter for this information. The JATC will reimburse you $80.00 once you have completed the online training. Proof of completion must be presented in order for reimbursement.

How to enroll in OSHA 30 at the JATC

- Call the JATC at (216) 459-2900.
- There is a minimum class size of 15 journeymen in order to teach the course, so please call early so the class is not cancelled.
- There is a Maximum class size of 40 Journeymen by OSHA standards. These courses will fill up on a first come first serve basis.

If you have any questions in regards to this year's Continuing Education requirements, please call the JATC at (216) 459-2900.
